1. The mobilization of all automobiles has been carried out on orders of the District National Committees of the Communist Party in areas where mobilization is in the hands of special military missions attached to the District National Committees. All automobiles manufactured since 1934 have been called up with their equipment, including spare tires, tow ropes, trailers and tools.
2. The Ministry of Transport ordered all owners of private industries who had been given permission in 1946 to convert their charcoal-burning trucks to gasoline to reconvert to charcoal-burning immediately. This order is effective for all trucks three tons or over in capacity, except for trucks belonging to national or communal enterprises.
3. At a conference held on 15 July 1950, delegates of the national and communal enterprises which comprise the Czechoslovak Motor Vehicle Forwarding Company (Ceskoslovenska Automobilova Doprava - CSAD) passed a directive ordering the enterprises to prepare an outline giving the following information:
 - a. Number of ton-kilometers handled.
 - b. Number of days reserved for maintenance of rolling stock.
 - c. Total transport load capacity.

This plan is being drawn up to aid the railroads to meet military transport requirements.
